STOP: Messenger isn't Closing

عنوان فرعي:

Here is what's actually happening on April 16.

Slide 2: The truth about the shutdown

- Messenger.com is closing (Web only).
- Mobile App stays exactly the same.
- Redirecting all web chats to Facebook.com.
- No messages lost.

Same chats, different home.

Follow We Code for facts, not rumors.

Caption

Don't believe the rumors: Messenger is NOT going away.

Meta is simply closing the standalone website (Messenger.com) on April 16 to bring chats back to the main Facebook interface!

Slide 2: “Whatsapp”

Two accounts. One phone. No more mixing business with personal.

- Run personal + business WhatsApp on the same device finally.
- Transfer chats seamlessly between iOS and Android.
- Delete large files to free up storage fast.
- AI-powered photo enhancement built in.
- Smart auto-replies that read conversation context.

Slide 3: “Gmail”

You can finally change your Gmail address without losing a single email.

- Google now lets US users change their Gmail address once a year.
- All old emails stay, nothing gets lost.
- Your old address becomes an alias, still works for login.
- Both addresses can be used to sign in.
- Rolling out to US users first.

Slide 4: “ LinkedIn ”

LinkedIn is killing spontaneous live.

- Starting June 2026, no more instant live streaming on LinkedIn.
- All streams must be scheduled in advance.
- Why? LinkedIn Events grew 24% + ad views up 31%
- Scheduled = more preparation = more engagement.
- Bottom line: Plan your lives. The platform is rewarding intentional content.

Slide 5: “ Snapchat ”

Snapchat creators can now get paid, directly from their audience.

- Creator Subscriptions are now open to all eligible Snapchat creators.
- Offer exclusive subscriber only Stories to paying fans.
- Premium replies, direct access for subscribers
- A new income stream, built directly into the platform
- No third-party tools needed

Slide 6: "TikTok"

TikTok creators can now sell personalized videos, without ever leaving the app.

- TikTok x Cameo partnership is officially live
- Creators sell custom personalized videos directly inside TikTok
- CTA buttons let fans request and pay in-app, no redirects
- A brand new monetization channel for TikTok creators
- Fans get a unique experience. Creators get paid. Win-win.

Slide 7: "Google Ads"

Google just let AI make your ad videos for you, from a single image.

- Google Demand Gen now uses Veo AI to turn static images into video ads
- No video team needed, AI handles the creative variations
- New YouTube creator discovery tool built into the campaign dashboard
- Better creative = "Excellent Ad Strength" score = better performance

Slide 8: “ Meta/ Edits ”

Meta's Edits app just got smarter, and your Reels have no more excuses to look basic.

- New AI-generated fonts that animate with your video
- Animated templates, no design skills needed
- Improved search to find and link Instagram accounts inside the app
- Better zoom + rotation controls for precise video edits
- All inside Meta's free editing app, built for creators.
